itself to prosecute more than the state does.

The insidiousness of perjury was first recited to the jury. Misstated facts may convict an innocent man or free a felon. Jurors, therefore should weigh these matters carefusy.

Then followed explicit instructions by Judge McCall on misuse of mails, the insidiousness of improper matter being sent through the mails as well as accusations against mail employes rifling the mails or being in any way lax in the discharge of their duties.

Counterfeiling was cwell upon and the evasion of draft and espionage acts.

"There may be some dregs of pro-dermanism left." said the judge, and if so they should be sifted and guilty persons sent to the pentlentiary. Tendency toward violating the pure food and drug act has been shown a little lately, and the judy is warned to act firmly against.

NEW YORK COTTON.

NEW YORK, May 26.—There was a continuation of general and excited buying in the cotton market early today. Bullish sentiment was evidently stimulated by the strong showing of Liverpool, reports of further rains in the belt and lower private condition figures, and after opening firm at an advance of 20 to 50 points active months soid 92 to 104 points above Saturday's finals. July deliveries touched 31.5c and October 31.2c, with all months makin new high records.

Realizing checked the advance at 32c for July and 31.27c for October, or 82 to 110 points above Saturday's closing figures. Reactions of 12 or 15 points followed, but the volume of business tapered off rapidly on the setback and the market was steady around midday. According to local spot dealers, both foreign and domestic mills are buying hedges against their sales of goods for forward delivery.

There was a fresh wave of heavy general buying during the early afternoon and prices reached still higher levels, although there was no fresh news factor. July soid up to 32.56c and October to 31.90c, or 155 to 170 points net higher.

WILSON'S GRANDFATHER PREACHED IN KENTUCKY

WASHINGTON, May 26.—When President Wilson visited Engiand last December he went to the old church and the old home of his grandfather, the Rev. Thomas Woodrow, in Carlisle, Engiand. It is not generally known in Kentucky that the grandfather of the president, although he was born in Scotland, was the pastor of the Presbyterian church at Nicholasville for four years, from 1857 to 1861.

The Rev. Thomas Woodrow was born at Palsley, Scotland, in 1791. He was educated at Glasgow university, after whileb-he did missionary work in the Orkneys and then settled as the pastor of the Independent church of Carlisle. He came to America in 1855, locating first at Brockville, Canada. From there he went to Chillicothe, O., to preach. Notice of the arrival of the Rev. Thomas Woodrow is put but briefly in the records of the Chillicothe Presbytery, At a meeting held at Bloomington, Sept. 12, 1837, "Thomas Woodrow, a member of the Congregation union of England," requested to be received. His case was referred to a committee. Favorable action must have been taken, for at the next meeting of the presbytery, held at Ripley in 1833, he was accepted and immediately received a call from the church at Chillicothe, which, being accepted, he was installed the first Friday in November of that year.

The next entry of interest in the history referring to the Rev. Mr. Woodrow is in the records of the presbytery held in Red Oak in 1847, to the effect that on account of feeble health he had fesigned his pastorate with the church at Chillicothe, and then he preached at Worthington, recovered his health, apparently, but did not resume his connection with the Chillicothe church.

After his resignation, the Rev. Mr. Woodrow served Dr. Hoge's church at Columbus for awhile, being received into that presbytery in 1849; and then he preached at Worthington, from which charge he was reseased April 27, 1857.

BAKERS UNION KICKS AGAINST NIGHT WORK

CHICAGO, May 26.—The baking in-dustry in America may be completely revolutionized if organized labor car-ries out its demands for abolition of night work, according to leading mas-ter bakers. The national headquar-ters here of the Bakers' and Confec-tionary Workers' International Union of America has sent an address to every local in the country urging that formal of America has sent an address to every local in the country urging that formal demand for abolition of work between 11 p. m. and 5 a. m. be made when wage scales for the year are presented to employers on May 1.

Each local will be permitted to take such steps as it seems necessary to enforce the demands. In vigorously opposing the demands, master bakers assert that 75 per cent of bakery goods in produced after midnight, that the public demands fresh bread each morning, and that the change would greatly reduce output or necessitate contly expansion of plants and machiners. In either case, they say, the cost of 1.590, 600 loaves of bread produced daily in Chicago, would be increased to the consumer and that other cities probably would follow the same course.

To this the union executive board re-would follow the same course.

To this the union executive board replies that similar objections were advanced years ago when legislation was sought abolishing cellar bakeries.

Employers thought they could not do without the dirty, underground bakeries, but now they would not think of returning to such conditions, 'said A. A. Myrup, treasurer of the union. 'We ask aboution of night work as a matter of health and justice to our 50. RELIGION UP TO DATE.

Organized religion must respond to the challenge of the new social conscience by freeing itself of the old accusation that it is a class institution, Religion of the future must deal with life in the world. It must appreciate that golden instincts can not arise from leaden lives; that roses can not grow from muckheaps; that men can not be saved spiritually unless environments makes it easier to be good and harder to be bad. The new religion demands that men of all religions forget the things that have divided them in the past, and that stress be placed upon the establishment of a genuine social justice. Religions may be many, but in this sense religion must be one.—Rabbi Horace J. Wolf.

New York—The talk on the floor this morning has indicated a feeling that the crop is getting badly in the grass with every day of rain, and owing to scarcity of labor the situation will soon get beyond the planter unless the weather changes. At that it is felt that a long period of very fagorable conditions will be necessary to bring the crop to a satisfactory point again.

New Orleans—The 200-point limit rule has been invoked on May, which traded to 33.40c. The market threatens to become a runaway affair because of the wet weather in the belt. There has been much covering of the short interest this morning. Some brokers are inclined to think that too much of a long interest is being piled up. Savannah is 100 pointa up on spots early, with midding at 32c.—Shepard & Giuck. with middling at 32c.—Shepard & Gluck. New Orleans—Strong, steady demand centinues in the market on the outlook for further bad weather. Numerous reports from the interior of damage by rains and recent cold spell. Expectation of a bullish government report Wednesday and a low bureau report on June 2, limits on spots being generally raised and factors now asking on the basis of 32c for midds.—Kofler.

New Orleans—Spot people confused over price, say factors generally ask higher, 32c about the idea of price of mid. This would be 125 higher, but doubt that it will be quoted full length
